2. As evidenced by the attached Affidavit of Proof of Service, service was made by certified return receipt mail, restricted delivery, on Defendant General Concrete, Inc. on July 22, 2005. See Exhibit 1.

3. The time within which Defendant General Concrete, Inc. could retain counsel and file a proper answer has expired without such action by Defendant. Docket #6.

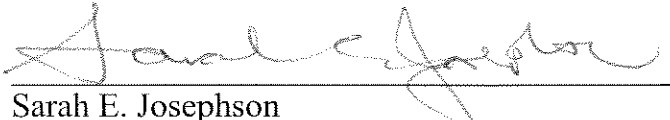

4. Defendant contacted counsel's office to request additional time after its first non-opposed extension. See Docket # 8. I instructed my assistant to contact the Defendant's Office and let its owners/representatives know that they would need to Motion the Court for more time. To my knowledge, defendant has not moved the Court for more time or retained counsel.

5. This litigation has been pending since late July with almost no action on the part of Defendant and with Defendant's non-compliance with the Court's order to retain counsel. Docket # 6.

6. Application for entry of default of Defendant General Concrete, Inc. is being made by Plaintiffs based on Defendant's failure to obtain counsel, plead in or otherwise defend this action as required by Local Rule 83.1(f)(2) and the Court's Order at Docket #4.

7. To the best of my knowledge, Defendant General Concrete, Inc. is not an infant, incompetent person, nor in the military service, and has not requested a stay pursuant to the Service Members Civil Relief Act.
